Solo, but not Solo. Our Solo Getaway trip experiences provide you with the freedom of exploring Solo while also creating opportunities to connect with other women who booked the same solo getaway. These tours are great for beginners to the most experienced travelers. Be sure to bring your camera, because we plan these trips to be packed with post worthy instagram moments.

Country Overview:

Colombia is the nation of magical realism.

It is the 25th largest country in the world , enjoying plenty of different climates and landscapes. It has the second largest population of Spanish speakers in the world (only after Mexico). It is the largest producer and exporter of roses in the world. It is one of the largest producers of coffee in the world. It is one of the richest countries in biological and cultural diversity. It has many places declared as World Heritage by UNESCO, among which are the monuments of Cartagena de Indias and the Barranquilla Carnival.

Cartagena, Colombia (4-nights)

Cartagena, Colombia is known as the “Jewel of the Indies” and it’s easy to see why. This city is absolutely magical, with beautiful architecture, interesting history and culture, delicious food, and nearby Caribbean beaches.

Cartagena has a unique blend of European, African, and indigenous cultures. One of the most unique cultures in Cartagena is that of the Palenque people. The Palenque formed the first freed slave settlement in the Americas about an hour outside of Cartagena. Now, Palenque women come into the city each day wearing their traditional, brightly-colored outfit to sell fruit.
